

Deliverable D5.8 – 3 Virtual lecture series, online on YouTube and Wikimedia Commons

Introduction and main objectives of the virtual lecture series:

To acknowledge the particular relevance of an open dialogue with the public on participatory memory work, the POEM European Training Network ensures to disseminate the network's knowledge and research into other settings across and beyond the sector to make it available as open knowledge. These objectives are implemented by measures such as the virtual lecture series: The public keynotes of the opening and closing conference as well as the guest lectures, given at the Knowledge Hubs by our scientific and non-academic experts, are provided as open access video talks on Vimeo and the project website here. As open platform, the lecture series shares POEM's knowledge network and scientific results with interested stakeholders for transdisciplinary network building. Thus, the POEM's virtual lecture series aims to contribute to an open dialogue on participatory approaches in memory making and is available for non-academic continuing education of interested groups.

Virtual lecture series:

1. A common cultural basis for a European demos? Heritage making and participatory memory practices in Europe

Guest Speaker: Prof Dr Gisela Welz (Goethe University of Frankfurt/Main)

Date: 13th December 2018

Location: POEM Opening Conference at Museum der Arbeit, Germany

2. Pitfalls and promises of researching super-diversity

Guest Speaker: Dr Susanne Wessendorf (London School of Economics)

Date: 13th December 2018

Location: POEM Opening Conference at Museum der Arbeit, Germany

3. The algorithmic past: The third way of memory
Guest Speaker: Prof Andrew Hoskins (Glasgow University)
Date: 26th March.2019
Location: POEM Knowledge Hub 2 at University of Glasgow, UK

4. 'Valuing' participatory memory practices
Guest Speaker: Dr Jenny Kidd (Cardiff University)
Date: 27th March 2019
Location: POEM Knowledge Hub 2 at University of Glasgow, UK

5. Participatory design and the collaborative dimensions of infrastructuring
Guest Speaker: Dr Andrea Botero (Aalto University)
Date: 16th September 2019
Location: POEM Knowledge Hub 3 at Uppsala University, Sweden

6. The discursive-material knot and participatory struggles over memory
Guest Speaker: Prof Nico Carpentier (Charles University Prague)
Date: 17th September 2019
Location: POEM Knowledge Hub 3 at Uppsala University, Sweden

